

Selma University

1501 Boynton Street
Selma, AL 36701
334-526-1718

FACT SHEET

Brief History:

Selma University was founded in 1878 to train ministers and teachers. Selma University is a four-year institution that offers ministerial degrees as well as general study degrees. Selma University is nationally accredited by the Association for Biblical Higher Education (ABHE) in Canada and the United States, and is owned and operated by the Alabama State Missionary Baptist Convention, Inc. Weekly Chapel Service held~ Wednesdays at 10:00 a.m., Student Attendance required!

Degrees Offered:

- ✓ A.A. Bible and Theology
- ✓ A.A. Healthcare
- ✓ B.S. Health Science
- ✓ B.A. General Studies
- ✓ B.A. General Studies, w/concentrations in
 - Business Administration
 - Biology
 - Physical Education
 - Bible, Theology and Christian Education
- ✓ M.A. Bible and Pastoral Ministry
- ✓ M.A. Bible and Christian Education

Selma University College of Allied Health Program: Associate of Health Science degree (Nursing Care/Phlebotomy Care) Nursing Assistant, Phlebotomy Technician, and EKG Technician

Admissions Procedure

- ❖ Complete and return an Official Application
- ❖ Have all official transcripts from your previous high school(s) and college(s) sent to Selma University.
- ❖ Submit TB-skin test results.
- ❖ Placement Test Scores or ACT Test Score (Freshmen Student)