Selma University is a four-year institution accredited by ABHE (Association for Biblical Higher Education). We have an open door policy for enrollment. Each applicant must present satisfactory credentials. The final decision for admittance is based on the following:

1. A complete admission application on file that is signed and dated.
2. A copy of recent TB Skin Test Results.
3. Submit official transcripts, and/or official GED from all high schools, colleges, universities and technical programs to the Office of Admissions.

If you have any questions regarding the Admissions Process, please feel free to call:

Selma University’s mission is to prepare men and women to be servant leaders throughout the world. As a Christian College, Selma University seeks to stimulate students spiritually, intellectually and socially and to produce graduates who lead in the profession for which they were trained.

ACCREDITATION

Selma University is accredited by the Commission on Accreditation of the Association for Biblical Higher Education in Canada and the United States. ABHE is recognized as a national accrediting agency by the Council for Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA), the successor of the Council on Postsecondary Education (COPA), and subsequently the Commission on Recognition of Postsecondary Accreditation (COPRA). ABHE is also listed by the United States Department of Education as a recognized accrediting agency for biblical higher education.
